Call for Applications

Legal Internship — ISARO Mentorship Program

Firm: Shebah Law Firm | Location: Kigali, Rwanda

As part of strengthening our team and our ongoing commitment to training the next generation of legal practitioners, Shebah Law Firm is opening its doors to talented, motivated law students and recent graduates who want to gain high-level practical experience through the ISARO Mentorship program.

Who We're Looking For

- Education: Final-year law student (Bachelor of Laws) or ILPD graduate.
- Language skills: Strong command of French, English, and Kinyarwanda.
- Qualities: Strong legal writing skills, rigorous analytical mindset, intellectual curiosity.
- Values: Integrity, professionalism, and a genuine desire to learn within a dynamic team.

Why Join Shebah Law Firm?

Beyond hands-on experience, our interns get privileged exposure to the legal world — actively taking part in professional conferences and discussion panels that build both intellectual growth and professional network.

Selection Process

- Written exam: assessing analytical, drafting, and legal reasoning skills.
- Oral exam: an interview assessing motivation, presentation, and fit with the firm's values.

Application File

- An up-to-date curriculum vitae (CV)
- A cover letter
- A copy of academic transcripts
- A certificate of good conduct and a criminal record extract

Registration Fees (non-refundable)

Final-year Bachelor students	20,000 RWF
ILPD final-year students	50,000 RWF
